Neighbourhood Perceptions of the Ukraine Crisis

From the Soviet Union into Eurasia?

Edited by Gerhard Besier, Dresden University of Technology, Germany and Katarzyna Stokłosa, University of Southern Denmark, Denmark

Series: Post-Soviet Politics

Discussing different perceptions of the Ukrainian-Russian war in neighbouring countries, this book offers an analysis of the conflicts and issues connected with the shifting of the border regions of Russia and Ukraine to show how 'material' and 'psychological' borders are never completely stable ideas. The contributors – historians, sociologists, anthropologists and political scientists from across Europe – use an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to explore the different national and transnational perceptions of a possible future role for Russia.
