

Borderless worlds - for whom? Ethics, moralities and (in)justice in migration and tourism

Programme

Wednesday 7th September

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 8.30-9.30 | Registration, Linnanmaa campus, main lobby (registration open till 11.00 and during breaks) |
| 9.30-9.50 | Opening words, lecture hall L2 |
| 9.50-10.40 | Keynote: Harald Bauder: Imagining Freedom of Migration (L2) |
| 10.40-11.30 | Keynote: Noel Salazar: The crucial role of brokerage in transnational (im)mobilities (L2) |
| 11.30-12.30 | Lunch |
| 12.30-14.10 | Parallel sessions slot 1 (Sessions 1, 2 and 3) |
| 14.10-14.40 | Coffee break |
| 14.40-16.20 | Parallel sessions slot 2 (Sessions 4, 5 and 6) |
| 18.00-19.30 | Panel: Borders: ethics, moralities and (in)justice . In Oulu main library, Pakkala hall. |
| 19.40 | Dinner: Restaurant Vänmanni |

Thursday 8th September

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 9.30-10.00 | Registration |
| 10.00-10.50 | Keynote: Raoul V. Bianchi: Tourism, Citizenship and Contested Mobility Rights in a Fractured World (L2) |
| 11.00-12.40 | Parallel sessions slot 3 (Sessions 7, 8 and 9) |
| 12.40-14.00 | Lunch break |
| 14.00-14.50 | Keynote: Alison Mountz: Borders, mobility, and the geopolitics of asylum (L2) |
| 14.50 | Closing words and coffee |

Parallel sessions

Sessions take place in three slots. Each presentation should be no more than 20 minutes, including discussion. Wednesday sessions are in classes SÄ105, TA101 and SÄ124. Thursday sessions are in SÄ102, SÄ105 and SÄ124. Please see the campus map for the location of the classes.

Slot 1, Wednesday, 12.30-14.10	Session 1: Inclusion, exclusion and moral landscape (SÄ105) Marielle Zill: Asylum accommodation as spaces of bordering: (Un)familiar relations between asylum seekers and neighbourhood residents Kathryn Cassidy: Where can I get free?: Everyday bordering, everyday incarceration Erik Hansson: As if the world has arrived: Swedes' responses to the presence of begging EU citizens Krista Manner: Thinking out of the box – exposing the hidden moralities and unjust practices in street prostitution regulation in Zürich Anna-Kaisa Kuusisto Arponen: De-bordering the lived experience: Supranational governance and subjective agency of unaccompanied refugee youth	Session 2: State and the governance of mobilities (TA101) Jaeyeon Choe and Michael O'Regan: The Filipino migrant workers' quality of life in Macau, China Mari Korpela: Multilocalized and multilayered borders: the case of temporary migrants in Finland Jonathan Burrow: Holding onto your papers; the maintenance of border identities between Hong Kong and Shenzhen Maria de Fatima Amante and Irene Rodrigues: Migration, morality and inequality: Chinese migrants access to citizenship through golden visa J.J. Zhang: Traversing the frontier: Socio-cultural impacts of Mainland Chinese day-tripping in a South China border town	Session 3: Borders, cultures and identities (SÄ124) Dave John Ashby: Geopolitical Imagi-nation: constructing 'otherness' through political humour in post-apartheid South Africa. Or: How I learned to stop worrying and love the borders Cristina Giudice: Contemporary art as a border struggle Gerhard Besier and Katarzyna Stoklosa: How to deal with cultural and religious borders? Problems with integration process Alix Varnajot: A borderless Arctic – for whom? Transforming borders and imaginaries of the Arctic Juha Ridanpää: Ethnic minorities, cultural activism and problematized citizenship
Slot 2, Wednesday, 14.40-16.20	Session 4: European borders and bordering practices (SÄ105) Aija Lulle: Open borders no more? Eastern Europeans discussing the Brexit Markus Silvasti: Self-mobility at the border Katharina Koch: The spatiality of external cross-border cooperation and its de- and re-bordering effects Anna Moraczewska: International border regime of the European Union and the systemic risk	Session 5: Actors, networks and territory effects (TA101) Estela Schindel: The role of 'nature' at the EU maritime borders: agency, ethics and accountability Fredrika Jakola: From de-bordering to re-bordering? The dynamics of national and transnational municipal co-operation at the Kemi-Tornio sub-region Paola Minoia: Borders, climate change, migration and environmental neo-colonialism Toni Ahlqvist: Territory effects of innovation policies: the allure of territoriality of 'Finnish innovation system'.	Session 6: State spaces and identity politics (SÄ124) Aharon Klieman: Degrees of separation: Transforming the relational and territorial politics of Gaza, Israel and the West Bank Kaj Zimmerbauer and Vesa Väättänen: Legitimizing territories beyond the state. Case Arctic Pekka Iivari: "We cannot stop their movement" – contemporary Russian discourse on migration, refugees and borders in the Arctic North

	Eeva-Kaisa Prokkola: Performances of border in/security in Finland		Pauliina Raento: Equine biopolitics and bordering practices in Finland Cadey Korson: Framing Policy on the Internal Urban Migration of Indigenous Peoples in Nouméa, New Caledonia/Kanaky
Slot 3, Thursday, 11.00-12.40	Session 7: Tourism and border crossings (SÄ102) Olivia Mason: Access denied at the border: a borderless world for whom? Arie Stoffelen and Dominique Vanneste: Commodifying contested borderscapes for tourism development: Relic Iron Curtain reflections in the Germany-Czech Republic borderlands Outi Kulusjärvi: The local-global networks of tourism actors in sustainable destination development Pooneh Torabian and Heather Mair: Travelling post 9/11: Border crossing narratives of Canadians with multiple citizenship Eóin Meehan: Diaspora engagement and local impacts	Session 8: Re-thinking territories and networks (SÄ105) Jussi Laine and James W. Scott: Ontological (in)security, the EU's bordering dilemma and neighbourhood Paolo Novak: Distance Martin Deleixhe: Biopolitical sovereignty and borders Joni Vainikka: Universality, foreign agents and how the network topology defi(n)es territories Pertti Joenniemi: How does border-crossing impact the formation of identities: a theorization	Session 9: Refugees and humanitarian borders (SÄ124) Hanne Wiegel: A politics of appearance? – Private accommodation initiatives in Germany for people seeking asylum Jouni Häkli, Elisa Pascucci and Kirsi Pauliina Kallio: Becoming refugee: Performative political agency at the humanitarian border Giorgio Neidhardt: Humanitarian borders in the Middle East Amanda Schmid-Scott: Civilised Brutality: (un)exceptional violence inside immigration detention centres Paul Fryer and Rainer-Elk Anders: Europe's other refugee crisis: displaced Ukrainians and their choice of sanctuary

Practical info

Linnanmaa campus:

The conference will take place in the University of Oulu main campus area (Linnanmaa), which is located approximately 6 km north of the city center. You can reach the university by taking any of the following buses from the city centre: 1 (Jylkynkangas), 2 (Ritaharju), 3 (Ritaharju), or 8 (teknologiakylä). We recommend to exit the bus at stop: Yliopisto P. Bus number 8 runs between Oulu Airport and University

(then continues to Teknologia kylä). Route information is also available on the website:

<http://www.oulunjoukkoliikenne.fi/journey-planner>

If you exit the bus at Yliopisto P bus stop, please take the entrance 2T to main lobby.

Registration:

Registration is open 8.30-11.00 and during the breaks on Wednesday. Registration desk is at the Linnanmaa campus main lobby, in front of L2 lecture hall.

Panel and dinner:

Conference panel is held at the Oulu main library's Pakkala hall (Pakkalan Sali), Kaarlenväylä 3, 90100 Oulu. By clicking the link below you can see the location of Oulu main library.

<https://www.google.fi/maps/place/Oulun+p%C3%A4%C3%A4kirjasto/@65.0138511,25.470174,16z/data=!4m5!3m4!1s0x0:0x643a5ce80eb3c60e!8m2!3d65.0154425!4d25.4634091?hl=en>

The participants of the panel "Borders: ethics, moralities and (in)justice" are:

Markku Heikkinen (Director & writer)

Liisa Jaakonsaari (Member of European parliament)

Kyösti Karvonen (Kaleva newspaper Editor-in-chief)

Arpad Kovacs (Pastor for international work)

Elisa Pascucci (Postdoctoral Researcher, Space and Political Agency Research Group/RELATE)

Conference dinner is after the panel in Restaurant Vänmanni, which is located in Oulu City Theatre, opposite of Oulu main library. Please open the link below to find out the location of Restaurant Vänmanni.

<https://www.google.fi/maps/place/Teatteriravintola+V%C3%A4nmanni/@65.0129874,25.467448,16z/data=!4m5!3m4!1s0x468032a44adac6fd:0x570ff5f4a2405944!8m2!3d65.0145464!4d25.4627166?hl=en>

If you have any special diet, please e-mail kaj.zimmerbauer@oulu.fi by Thursday 25 August at the latest!

More information on Oulu can be found at <http://www.visitoulu.fi/en/home/>